

PIERCE PEPIN COOPERATIVE SERVICES

The National Rural Electric Cooperative Association (NRECA) will host the National Youth Tour in Washington, DC on June 17-22, 2022. The contest is open to high school juniors; students applying must commit to representing Pierce Pepin Cooperative Services and the Wisconsin Electric Cooperatives at this event.

All-expense paid trip to Washington, DC to connect with youth representatives from around the country, to learn about electric cooperatives, meet with your legislators, and tour national monuments in the Washington DC area.

Contest requirements:

Students must present in video format a response on one of the following topics. Video must be no longer than 2 minutes in length.

Topics:

A. We've grown accustomed to having electricity on demand in the world we live in such as clicking a remote control to turn on a TV, using a computer, playing video games, or charging our cell phones. Show the impact on your life and community in a world without electricity.

B. Choose one or two forms of renewable energy (solar, wind, hydropower, biomass, or geothermal) and discuss the pros and cons related to that form of renewable energy. What does renewable energy mean for safe, reliable, and affordable energy and how will your future be impacted by renewable energy practices?

Rules:

1. You must be a son/daughter (or under legal guardianship) of an active member of PPCS residing in the same household.
2. You must be in your junior year of high school. Qualified students in secondary schooling (home school) and are at least 16-18 years of age are also eligible.
3. Video information should be based on PPCS or electric industry information available at www.piercepepin.coop.
4. Use personal experiences to demonstrate your understanding of the topic.
5. Your video will be scored on knowledge of the subject, originality, and creativity.
6. Only videos received by the due date will be reviewed by our panel of judges.
7. The Youth Tour Contest form must be completed and accompany the video to be considered complete.
